

Rev. Peggy Konkel

Rev. Peggy Konkel's Bio:

Rev. Peggy Konkel was licensed and ordained as a Unity minister in 2005. Since that time, she has served as senior minister at Unity of Blue Water in Port Huron, MI and Unity of Columbia in Columbia, South Carolina.

In between her senior assignments she was affiliated with Unity of Daytona Beach and Unity of Merritt Island in Florida.

She currently resides in Plymouth, MI, close to her family and frequently speaks and teaches to share her passion for the Unity message.

She authored her first book, Pieces and Pearls in August 2021, a compilation from weekly blogs she authored since beginning her ministerial journey.

Rev. Peggy brings to ministry many resources she gleaned from her prior careers in accounting, physical therapy, and real estate, as well as her enthusiasm for experiencing life for all it has to offer.
